Tremendous thought and consideration, along with a lot of disagreement went into the decision of dedicating this yearbook. In reviewing our past years at Woodward, we recalled different occasions when different teachers and faculty members have offered us much needed assistance. Also in recalling these pleasant and vivid memories we thought deeply about each other and the assistance we offered to our friends.

There is one teacher, however, we wish to acknowledge and thank for his support, encouragement and friendship. He has helped us not only academically in our science classes but also to help make us better individuals. We feel we have become better human beings because of our special friend. He has also helped us as a class to care more about one another, to work together, and to become a strong unit of individuals who greatly love one another.

As a class we have been there for one another with constant strength and support. Friendship is something we have learned and perfected over the years; and we have been able to express and practice that friendship with one another.

Therefore, we the class of 1988, dedicate this yearbook to our good friend, Mr. David Denneno and most of all to each other.

A special friend

The Gift of Friendship

Friendship is a priceless gift that cannot be bought or sold, but its value is far greater than a mountain made of gold
For gold is cold and lifeless,
it can neither see nor hear,
and in the time of trouble
it is powerless to cheer-
It has no ears to listen,
no heart to understand, it cannot bring you comfort or reach out a helping hand-
So when you ask God for a Gift be thankful if He sends not diamonds, pearls or riches,
but the love of real true friends.
-Helen Steiner Rice

Faculty

Robert L. Johnston
Headmaster

To The Class of 1988:

There are all kinds of people who will offer you all kinds of advice about your future. You may or may not listen. However, I would urge you to listen carefully and seize upon that advice which captures your imagination. The specific advice relative to your actions is important, but the question of your own life support systems, is infinitely more important.

The immediate reality is that you are free. This means that you are responsible for your own destiny. There is no one to blame for mistakes. They are all yours. You deserve credit for your accomplishments because they are also all yours. Alas . . . it is still true with freedom comes awesome responsibility. My only advice is to sustain your life not by wallowing in the past but by looking to and creating the future.

Good luck and keep in touch with your roots.

Sincerely,

Robert L Johnston

IMAGINE IF . . . . .

Michelle C. went somewhere without a camera.
Cathy had a driver's license.
Tomika didn't have a boyfriend.
Michelle F. didn't complain.
Lauren didn't go out with Aron.
Veronica came to school on time.
Kristi didn't have her high-beams on.
Michelle K. wasn't an extrovert.
Kim ran out of lip gloss.
Julie K. had fire insurance.
Suzanne asked a question.
Rachel missed a "heavy metal" concert.
Michelle R. wasn't Italian.
Betsy didn't use sound effects.
Joy didn't wear spandex pants.
Dawn didn't have split ends;
Bernadette wasn't blond.
Julie W. had long finger nails.

The Class of '88 never existed.
REMEMBER WHEN . . . . .

Michelle C. lost her umbrella?
Cathy gave us "The Letter"?
Tomika got a detention?
Lauren liked hicks?
Michelle F. had her lunchroom fits?
Veronica got attacked by the mirror? . . .
Kristi broke the bottle?
Michelle K. sprayed Ms. Lawton's desk?
Kim got her miniskirt caught in her nylons?
Julie K.'s car caught on fire?
Suzanne had an accident at the prom?
Rachel . . . broke the fall?
Michelle R. saw Michelle Kearney's dog?
Betsy slipped in science?
Joy came to this school?
Dawn had privileges?
Bernadette slipped at Michelle K.'s party?
Julie W. played truth or dare?

The Class of '88 lost their privileges?!!

It must be that man.

Posing? Who's posing?

Sisters? NO WAY!

When's vacation?

"Oh please, no more pictures!"

A salute to the Mother Land

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1988, being of too much sound, no minds and able but unwilling bodies, do hearby bequeath the following:

I, Michelle Collins, leave Kristin H. for another 6 years.

I, Cathy Deery, leave my word.

I, Tomika Dobbyn, leave my race for salutatorian.

I, Lauren Douglas, leave my new-found attitude.

I, Michelle Favata, leave my sympathy to all those left behind.

I, Kristi Gaedtke, leave the best burps of the Class of '88.

I, Michelle Kearney, leave Pictionary and categories.

I, Kim Keyes, leave my best wishes to the NHS and the Class of '88.

I, Julie Krzywda, leave my burnt books and pretty faces.

I, Suzanne Labbe, leave my sweats.

I, Rachel Oliva, leave my hair spray & concert tickets.

I, Michelle Riccio, leave my position as yearbook editor to anyone who wants it.

I, Betsy Rodney, leave my attitude & many excuses to get out of gym.

I, Joy Rowe, leave my spandex pants.

I, Dawn Steeves, leave my bad grades & Diet Coke.

I, Bernadette Verrochi, leave my checkbook and Bloomingdale's credit card.

I, Julie Wallace, leave my make-up work.

We, the Class of 1988, do hearby bequeath the following:

To Mrs. Aheen: A new French class (since Bernadette is graduating.)

To Mrs. Bennet: a new pair of gym shorts.

To Mrs. Block: we leave her alone.

To Mrs. Brady: a warm computer room.

To Ms. Brien: a pack of gum.

To Mr. Denneno: our leftover candycane reindeer nd all our love & thanks.

To Mrs. Hayes: a book of passes.

To Mrs. Holliday: a new pair of black pumps.

To Mrs. Johnston: her own coffee pot.

To Mr. Johnston: a speech.

To Mrs. Lovit: next year's seniors.

To Mrs. MacKay: lunchslip money.

To Ms. Magboo: sandwich.

To Mrs. McDermott: her own homeroom.

To Mr. Pickel: a "real" chalkboard.

To Mrs. Poole: a box of Kleenex.

To Mrs. Praetsch: a vaccuum that works.

To Ms. Purdy: a script to a Broadway play.

To Mr. Reseleman: an active gym class.

To Mrs. Williams: a new pair of leg warmers.

To the Class of 1989: we leave the keys to the Senior Room, since we don't have any use for them.

To the Class of 1990: Our Barron's books and SAT with Mrs. Lovit.

To the Class of 1991: tranquilizers.

To the Class of 1992: the torture of 4 high school years at Woodward.

To the Class of 1993: a nutritious lunch, but all the candy they rightfully deserve.

To the Class of 1994: a lifetime's supply of birthday cakes and all our love!

To the Class of 1989
